

Alabama Consortium for Technology in Education, Inc.

ACTE “Virtual” Team Programming Challenge (TPC)
TPC Fall Awards – November 18, 2021

Level 3 Teams - Grades 7/8

1st Place – Denton Magnet School of Technology

“Mambas” – Owen Farmer, Derek Ricafort, Will Culpepper, Chase Joiner

2nd Place – Baldwin County Virtual Middle School

“The Pelican Squad” – Aiden Anderson and Emerson Willkie

3rd Place – Denton Magnet School of Technology

“NL” – Donald Barrett, Ethan Emonina, and Logan Phillips

Level 4 Teams – Grades 9/10

1st Place – James Clemens High School

“The Bandwidth Besties” – Nivrti Eadala, Madhu Balaji, Grace Hur, Connie Guo

2nd Place – St. Paul’s Episcopal School

“SPS Gamers” – Phillip Gill, John Collier Tierce, Daniel Gill

3rd Place – James Clemens High School

“Expecting Crashes” – Andrew Gohlich, Sophia Simpson, Hannah Park, Brian Venson

Level 5 Teams – Grades 11/12

1st Place – James Clemens High School, Madison

“JCHS Group 6” – Pranav Somu, Joshua Wang, Jeremiah Yang, Daniel Je

2nd Place – James Clemens High School, Madison

“Oriental Market” – Steve Jung, Kourtland Harmon, Alex King, Jaden Yu

3rd Place – Tuscaloosa Academy, Tuscaloosa

“TA Knights” – Michael Constantine, Haven Thompson, Dawson Bielstein, Birdie Sun

Winning Schools/Sponsors

Baldwin County Virtual Middle School – Mobile, AL – Melissa Ard
Denton Magnet School of Technology, Mobile, AL – Lisa Molyneux
James Clemens High School, Madison, AL – Kayla Brown
St. Paul’s Episcopal School – Mobile, AL – Donna Macken
Tuscaloosa Academy, Tuscaloosa, AL – Tammi Scheiring

Sharon Reynolds, ACTE Co-Director P.O. Box 7043 Huntsville, AL. 35807

Alabama Consortium for Technology in Education, Inc.

A 501 (c)(3) Non-Profit Organization